Code: <https://github.com/daze77/adoptaPet-Test>

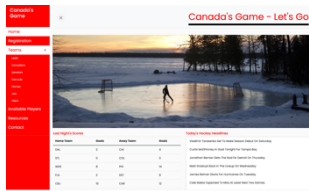

A website that supports animal lovers as they find and care for a new pet. Developed as part of a team, the site is built using REACTJS and features a number of reusable components. In the project, I was responsible for the integration of maps using REACT-Leaflet and for helping with overall formatting and rendering of information acquired through API's.

Canada's Game

Code: <https://github.com/bnicholson87/CanadasGame>

Canada's Game provides users with a simple and easy way to register and assign players to teams. Built largely in JavaScript, this application uses a Mongo database to store player and team information. Working as part of a development team, I created the overall look and feel of the site as well as the main navigation. I also established the hockey API to bring in daily updates on NHL game stats and news.
